Integrity Guidelines for all members

All Members, Trustees, Officials, Management Committee, Working Group and all other relevant committees have a responsibility to inform themselves and oversee the integrity framework of the Scottish Para-Football. This includes; ensuring they follow best practice, promote a culture of integrity and comply with legislative and regulatory requirements, to facilitate reports to the Management Committee and relevant committees and members to discharge responsibilities.

Oversight of integrity policies and practices must form part of the Associations risk management process. Considerations should include understanding the vulnerabilities of the Association and its competitions, the health and wellbeing of all members and ultimately developing appropriate integrity safeguards to mitigate risks.

In order to achieve appropriate oversight of their organisations integrity framework, and ensure their responsibilities as Officials and committee members are fully discharged individuals Officials and committee members must fully inform themselves of the Associations integrity practices.
